And Finally...

Where would you find P7s like the St. Colman's P7s?

Anyone fortunate enough to secure a ticket for this week's P7 production of Oliver Twist will already know the answer!

The performances were nothing short of outstanding. From the acting and choreography to the vibrant energy on stage, every aspect reflected the highest standards. The pupils demonstrated remarkable commitment: mastering lines, stage directions, and timing with confidence and flair.

Both performances were completely sold out and warmly received by the enthusiastic audiences. It was a fitting showcase for our P7 pupils, whose hard work and dedication truly paid off. The effort invested in the production was immense, and the result was a memorable and highly successful show.

We extend our sincere thanks to all of the P7 children, as well as the staff and parents who supported, guided and contributed in so many ways. Your commitment and teamwork made this production possible.

It was a genuine pleasure to watch and thoroughly enjoyable from start to finish.

We are incredibly proud of our P7 year group and are confident that this production will remain a cherished memory for many years to come.

Enjoy your weekend,

Mr. Baine
